OUT FOR BIG PURSE

Johnson and Jeffries Will Wait for Highest Bidder.

FRISCO PROBABLE SELECTION

Hester, Coffroth, and Gleason Are Being Pitted Against Each Other by Fighters to Make Highest Bid. Johnson Leaves Chicago to Obtain

New York, Oct. 26.—Unless present indications amount to nothing, Jeffries and Johnson, after signing articles of agreement, will play three San Francisco promoters against one another in forcing the offer of an enormous purse for the big fight. Sid Hester, of the Mission Athletic Club, of San Francisco, is on record with an offer of a $75,000 purse or 70 per cent of the gross receipts and 50 per cent of the moving picture privileges, James Coffroth, of the Colma Athletic Club, said Coffroth, of the Colma Athletic Club, said sometime ago that he would make a higher bid than anybody but when he earned of the Hester proposition, after is arrival here on Monday, Coffroth refused to even hint at the size of the Hester and Coffroth, another 'Frisco p moter, Jack Gleason, has wired Jeff that he will be here next Monday with an offer that will land the battle and that he will build a huge amphitheater just outside of the earthquake city to accommodate 25,000 spectators. Meanwhile the Miller brothers, of 101 ranch, Oklahoma, have announced an offer of $60,000, proiding the governor of that State will grant a permit

Johnson is quoted as saying that he will fight winner take all, or a 75 and 25 per co ivision of the largest purse offered. H is also on record as stating that he wi bet $10,000 on the side, and that Jeffries the date for the fight. When Jeffrie heard these things to-day he said h would make the match without delay provided, of course, that Johnson did not balk over conditions at the last moment

Revolutionary Soldiers Buried in Mound at Marietta. It will be of interest to many Ohioans esiding in Washington to know that the Marietta Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution are trying to raise money to erect a gateway to the famous old Mound Cemetery, which is still in-tact, and where lie more Revolutionary officers and soldiers than in any grave yard in the United States. Their name are now seldom heard, but are remen bered with reverence by the old citizens

The origin of this remarkable mound or earthwork is shrouded in mystery, even the Indians could give no inforconcerning it, and the soil of which it is composed is entirely different from any Temperance Ideas Advanced Before earth in the State, showing it must have been brought a long distance.
